DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-18 are currently pending in the instant application and are subject to the following new lack of unity requirement.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions, which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

Claims 1-18 are drawn to more than one inventive concept (as defined in PCT Rule 13), and accordingly, a restriction is required according to the provision of PCT Rule 13.2

PCT Rule 13.2 states that the international application shall relate to one invention only or to a group of inventions so linked as to form a general inventive concept (requirement of unity of invention).

PCT Rule 13.2 states that unity of invention referred to in Rule 13.1 shall be fulfilled only when there is a technical relationship among those inventions involving one or more of the same or corresponding special technical features.

Due to the numerous and widely divergent variables in the compound of formula (I), for example A, Ar1, Ar2, G, X, Y, R1, R2, R3, R4, R5, R6, R7, R8, n, m, etc., a precise listing of inventive groups cannot be made. The following groups are exemplary:

Group I: Claims 1-15 drawn to products and methods of using the compound of formula (I) wherein X is NH; Y is -NH-CO; Ar1 and Ar2 are phenyl; A is -C(=NH)NH2, G is a glycosyl group, which is 3,4,5-trihydroxy-6-hydroxymethyl-tetrahydro-pyran-2-yloxy; and R3 is substituted phenyl; as depicted in Claim 1, pages 3-5 and Example 1 of the specification.

Art Unit: 1626

Group II: Claims 1-15 drawn to products and methods of using the compound of formula (I) wherein X is NH; Y is –NH–CO; Ar1 and Ar2 are phenyl; A is –C(=NH)NH₂, G is a glycosyl group, which is 3,4,5-trihydroxy-6-hydroxymethyl-tetrahydro-pyran-2-yloxy; and R3 is substituted pyrrolidine; as depicted in Claim 1, pages 3-5 and Example 3 of the specification.

Group III: Claims 1-15 drawn to products and methods of using the compound of formula (I) wherein X is NH; Y is –NH–CO; Ar1 and Ar2 are phenyl; A is –C(=NH)NH₂, G is a glycosyl group, which is 3,4,5-trihydroxy-6-hydroxymethyl-tetrahydro-pyran-2-yloxy; and R3 is biphenyl; as depicted in Claim 1, pages 3-5 and Example 5 of the specification.

Group IV: Claims 1-15 drawn to products and methods of using the compound of formula (I) wherein X is NH; Y is –NH–CO; Ar1 and Ar2 are phenyl; A is –C(=NH)NH₂, G is a glycosyl group, which is 3,4,5-trihydroxy-6-hydroxymethyl-tetrahydro-pyran-2-yloxy; and R3 is phenyl-morpholine; as depicted in Claim 1, pages 3-5 and Example 8 of the specification.

Group V: Claims 16-18 drawn to methods of using the compound of formula (I) wherein the disorder is arterial restenosis.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Again, this list is not exhaustive as it would be impossible under the time constraints due to the sheer volume of subject matter instantly claimed. Therefore, applicant may choose to elect a single invention (a product or a method of use of said product) by identifying another specific embodiment, i.e. another value for A, Ar1, Ar2, G, X, Y, R1, R2, R3, R4, R5, R6, R7, R8, n, m, etc..., not listed in the exemplary groups of the invention and examiner will endeavor to group the same.

Art Unit: 1626

The claims herein lack unity of invention under PCT rule 13.1 and 13.2 since, under 37 CFR 1.475(a) the compounds defined in the claims lack a significant structural element qualifying as the special technical feature that defines a contribution over the prior art. The technical feature of formula (I), , of the instant claim(s) is difficult to ascertain because of all the variables. There is no fixed core or compound that can be ascertained. Based on a reading of the species in the specification, it appears that the core is where Ar^2 is phenyl, X is NH , and Y is $NHCO$, which does not define a contribution over the prior art (as can be seen by Herlihy, et al., WO 99/50246, formula (I) of Abstract), which corresponds to applicants formula (I) wherein Ar^2 is phenyl, X is NH , and Y is $NHCO$. The variables on the core compound vary extensively and when taken as a whole result in vastly different compounds.

Accordingly, unity of invention is considered to be lacking and restriction of the invention in accordance with the rules of unity of invention is considered to be proper. Additionally, the vastness of the claimed subject matter, and the complications in understanding the claimed subject matter imposes a serious burden on any examination of the claimed subject matter.

A telephone call was made to Attorney Paula Campbell Evans on 2/13/2007 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.
